

Curriculum-Grade 7

- Chesapeake Alternative School is compliant with the Virginia State Standards of Learning through our core curriculum subjects.
- High school students receive credits upon successful completion of their classes. The Block Scheduling includes three credits per term.
- Along with the core curriculum courses, Chesapeake Alternative School offers electives such as Individual Development, Technology Education, and Computer Training.
- Chesapeake Alternative School provides special education classes for learning disabled students and emotionally disturbed students.
- Chesapeake Alternative School offers a variety of instructional methods with an emphasis on individualization.
- Chesapeake Alternative School's behavioral management system provides consequences for negative behavior and immediate reinforcement for positive behavior.
- Chesapeake Alternative School provides individualized counseling to help students develop self-discipline and to encourage good citizenship.
- Chesapeake Alternative School encourages parental involvement in the students' education and utilizes appropriate community agencies.