

Laps for Lymphoma Walkathon

Who: Grassfield Student Council Association
What: A walkathon to raise awareness for Lymphoma cancer
When: March 13th, 2010 5:00 P.M.
Where: Grassfield High School Stadium
Why: To make a difference!!!

The registration fee is $20 per person, which includes a Lymphoma awareness t-shirt and a lime green glow stick (which we will carry during the walk to promote awareness of this disease). All profits will be donated to the Lymphoma Research Foundation. Pre-registration will be held March 1- March 5, 2010 at Grassfield High School from 12p.m. to 2p.m. Registration forms can also be mailed by March 5th, 2010 to:

Grassfield High School
C/O Student Council Association
2007 Grizzly Trail
Chesapeake, Virginia 23323

Lymphoma's Awareness color is lime green, so wear as much lime green as you can!

An estimated 20,510 people died from Lymphoma in 2008 and in remembrance, we are walking a distance of one foot to honor each life lost to Lymphoma. This will be approximately four miles.

HOPE TO SEE YOU THERE!
