

Karen Judy is WBP's 2016-2017 Teacher of the Year. Karen is a graduate of Christopher Newport University where she earned a degree in Early Childhood Psychology. She started her career with Chesapeake Public Schools as a first and second grade teacher from 1999 until 2004. After being a stay-at-home mom for nine years, she returned to Chesapeake Public Schools as the Media Specialist at Western Branch Primary. She is the resource team chair, ESTAT Secretary, PTA Faculty Representative and the Parent/Community Engagement Team Chair. She volunteers at Believers Church on the Worship Arts Team and in the children's ministry. Karen loves traveling, spending time with her family and reading a good book on the beach!
